HISTORY/BACKGROUND

The Conference was formed as the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1970. In 2010, portions of the Wyoming Conference of the United Methodist Church were transferred to the Central Pennsylvania Conference and the name of the organization was changed to the Susquehanna Conference of the United Methodist Church.

As of December 31, 2016, the Conference includes approximately 881 United Methodist churches in 33 counties of northeastern, north central, central and south-central Pennsylvania, including the cities of Scranton, Harrisburg, York, Williamsport and Wilkes-Barre, and one church located in the Southern tier of New York state. Its administrative headquarters are at 303 Mulberry Drive, Mechanicsburg, PA 17050 and its telephone number is (717) 766-7441. The Conference is divided into seven (7) districts each of which is headed by a District Superintendent.

The Conference maintains a Loan Committee which is tasked with administering a separate account within the Conference designated as the Loan Fund (the "Fund"). The Fund is operated by a staff at the Conference consisting of an Executive Director and Conference Treasurer/Comptroller reporting to the Loan Committee and a staff of Fund Specialists. The Fund staff is together tasked with administering the fund on a daily basis.

The Fund exists primarily to extend loans to United Methodist churches within the Conference to acquire, construct, renovate and repair church property (including parsonages). The Fund does not extend loans to individuals nor does it make operating loans, extend lines of credit, finance vehicles or office equipment or participate in loans originated by others. Assets of the Fund may be made available to the Conference primarily for financing capital improvements of the Conference.

The source of funds for these loans is the offer and sale of unsecured investment certificates ("Investment Certificates") solely to (i) United Methodist churches located within the Conference in Pennsylvania, (ii) individuals who certify that they are members of United Methodist churches located within the Conference in Pennsylvania, are at least 18 years of age and bona fide residents of Pennsylvania, (iii) clergy (as defined in the current Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church) of the Conference who are bona fide residents of Pennsylvania, (iv) the Conference, and (v) the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the United Methodist Church. The Conference, through the Committee, generally offers these Investment Certificates for sale on a continuous basis. The Investment Certificates are securities under both federal and state securities laws. Although the Investment Certificates are exempt from registration under federal law, the Conference registers the Investment Certificates annually with the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities (the "Department").
