Generations and Stewardship: Engaging Millennials in your Congregation

- Learn how giving varies across all generations of Americans
- Discover the factors that differentiate Millennial Givers
- Name the stereotypes and assumptions placed on Millennials generally and in your context
- Outline questions that you can ask Millennials in your congregation and community to engage them in a holistic, generosity conversation

Presented by
Author Grace Duddy Pomroy

Grace Duddy Pomroy is a millennial stewardship ministry leader. She graduated from Luther Seminary in 2012 with a Master's of Arts degree in Congregational Mission and Leadership. She served as the Assistant Director of the Center for Stewardship Leaders at Luther Seminary and the Executive Director of Operations for Kairos and Associates and the Joshua Group. She is also the co-author of the recently published stewardship book, Embracing Stewardship: How to Put Stewardship at the Heart of Your Congregation's Life, as well as author of the 2013 ELCA stewardship resource, "Stewards of God's Love." She lives in Apple Valley with her husband, Tyler and currently works as the Financial Education Specialist at Portico Benefit Services.
